CONSTITUTION OF THE ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGE & UNIVERSITY BROADCASTING STATIONS

Preamble:

Believing that radio is in its very nature one of the most important factors in our national and international welfare, we, the representatives of institutions of higher learning, engaged in educational broadcasting, do associate ourselves together to promote, by mutual cooperation and united effort, the dissemination of knowledge to the end that both the technical and educational features of broadcasting may be extended to all.

Article 1

Membership:

(a) Any college or university of recognized standing may be elected to membership in this organization by approval of the Executive Committee, and a two-thirds vote of all active members of the Association, each active member being entitled to one vote.

(b) Active members shall consist of such institutions of higher learning, owning and operating their own broadcasting stations, as are members of this Association. Any institution of higher learning may become an associate member of this Association in the same manner as provided for active membership. Associate members shall have all the privileges of active membership, except that they shall not be permitted to vote or to hold office. An experimental or amateur station, owned, and operated by a recognized institution of higher learning, may be elected to associate membership.

Article 2

Dues:

The annual dues or registration fees of active members shall be $10, payable January 1 of each year. The dues of associate members shall be $7 annually.

Article 3

Officers:

The officers shall be a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and six additional executive committeemen. One committeeman shall be selected from each of the five radio zones in the United States, and one shall be a member-at-large, for a period of one year. These officers shall be elected by a majority vote of the active members present at the annual business meeting, which shall be held at a time and place designated by the Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee is empowered to select an executive secretary, whose duties shall be defined by the Committee.

Article 4

Duties of Officers:

The duties of the officers shall be those usually pertaining to such offices, and such additional duties as are outlined in the by-laws.

Article 5

Quorum:

(a) A majority of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum, thereof.

(b) A majority of the active members in good standing shall constitute a quorum at the annual meeting, or at such special meetings as may be called by the Executive Committee.

(c) Active members may vote by proxy, provided there is not a quorum present. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to allot the number of proxies to the respective districts in such a manner as to constitute a quorum.

Article 6

By-laws:

The by-laws of this Association may be adopted and amended by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

Article 7

Amendments:

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the active membership. Notice of any proposed amendment shall be submitted to the membership at least thirty days prior to the date of voting.
